CHAPTER ONE ~ MISSION & ADMINISTRATION

PART 1 – MISSION

§ 1-101. Mission Statement.

As part of the Faulkner University community, the School of Law shares Faulkner University's mission to glorify God by embracing academic excellence and emphasizing a strong commitment to integrity within a caring Christian environment.

In its efforts to fulfill this mission, the School of Law endeavors to:

- Provide an excellent legal education in which the faculty engages students in a challenging learning experience designed to promote the students' competent and ethical participation in the legal profession;
- Promote a Christian environment that encourages all members of the law school community to use their abilities to advance the legal profession and benefit society;
- Attract, develop, and retain a highly competent and diverse faculty devoted to teaching, community service, and scholarly research and writing;
- Attract a qualified and diverse student body;
- Provide students with meaningful resources and experiences such as individual academic advising and support, career counseling, clinical, externship, and advocacy opportunities, designed to prepare them for their roles as competent and ethical members of the legal profession;
- Contribute to discussion of the relationship of faith, learning, and the law; and,
- Regularly reassess the program of legal education through on-going strategic planning to assure continual quality and improvement of the program.

PART 3 – THIS MANUAL

§ 1-301. Contents and Name.

This manual shall contain policies adopted by the faculty, and shall be known as the Faculty Policies Manual.

September 21, 2004

§ 1-302. Definitions.

(a) In this manual, unless otherwise specified, "the dean" means the dean of the law school or his or her designee.

(b) In this manual, unless otherwise specified, "semester" means the term beginning in August and ending in December and/or the term beginning in January and ending in May. "Semester" does not include in its meaning a summer session or an interterm session.

September 21, 2004

§ 1-303. Location, Captions, and Dates.

The location of policies, their section numbers and captions, and the dates of adoption are for information only. No location, section number, or caption shall be adopted by the law faculty as a part of the policy.

September 21, 2004

§ 1-304. Maintenance and Availability.

(a) The Dean shall keep this manual up to date.

(b) Current copies of this manual shall be kept in the offices of the Dean and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

September 21, 2004

§ 1-305. Policies To Be Included.

(a) If a policy adopted by the faculty is not an amendment of a policy already in the manual, that policy shall be included in this manual unless the faculty passes a motion which explicitly provides otherwise.

(b) If a policy adopted by the faculty is an amendment of a policy already in the manual, the amendment shall be inserted in this manual in place of that part of the policy which shall have been amended.

(c) Every policy which is repealed in its entirety by the faculty shall be removed from this manual.

September 21, 2004

§ 1-306. Date below Each Section.

Immediately below the text of each of its sections, this manual shall show a date determined by the following:

(a) If the policy contained in the section has never been amended, the date shown in this manual shall be the date of the faculty meeting in which the policy was adopted.

(b) If the policy contained in the section has been amended, the date shown in this manual shall be the date of the last faculty meeting in which the policy was amended.

September 21, 2004

§ 1-307. Updating.

(a) Promptly after the faculty has made a policy decision which Section 1-305 requires to be inserted in this manual, the dean shall provide each faculty member with the language the dean chooses to insert to reflect the faculty's decision. The dean shall have the discretion to make stylistic changes in the language of the faculty decision, to choose a caption or captions, and to choose a section number or numbers. If the faculty does not agree with any of the dean's choices, the faculty shall choose and adopt the language (and/or section number[s]) to be inserted in this manual; and thereafter the dean shall change this manual accordingly.

(b) When any change is made in this manual, the dean shall promptly provide each faculty member with the pages(s) affected (with the date of distribution shown at the bottom of each page).

September 21, 2004

§ 1-308. Organization.

As it appears useful, the dean shall have the discretion to make changes in the organization of this manual, including the numbering and names of chapters, of chapter parts, and of sections. After making any such change, the dean shall promptly provide each faculty member with the page(s) affected (with the date of distribution shown at the bottom of each page).

September 21, 2004

§ 1-309. Modifications in Unusual Circumstances

It is recognized that the application of these policies, in unusual circumstances, may work an undue hardship. In such instances, the Dean shall have the discretion to ameliorate the hardship by modifying the policy as to such situation or to grant an exception thereto. Except in the case of personnel issues, the Dean shall report to the full faculty on a quarterly basis regarding any waivers or modifications.

2-306a. Foundations of Law (5360).

- (a) Foundations of Law is a required course for three semester hours of graded credit.
- (b) The course shall have a final examination.
- (c) In publications, the description of the course shall be approximately as follows:

This required first-year course will take up important questions for the beginning law student: What is law? Where does it come from? What are its purposes? And how is it implemented in contemporary society?

The course will begin with a brief unit on law as a social concept and the types of law that have arisen in the West, namely custom, legislation, administrative regulation, and judicial opinions. Special attention in this unit will be paid to the institutions from which these forms of law arise: courts, legislatures, and administrative agencies. Next, a unit will survey the four foundational schools of Western legal thought: Natural Law; Liberalism; Legal Realism; and Positivism. In this unit students will examine various understandings of the relation of law to justice, comparing particular Christian understandings to one another and to other competing understandings. Students will also examine particular instances of legislation, regulation, and judicial decision-making to discover how American positive law reflects the common assumptions and divisions among the four foundational schools. Finally, the course will conclude with a multi-week unit on legal methodologies. The purpose of this unit is to enhance the student's understanding of various methods of legal reasoning, including tools of construction, inductive and deductive reasoning, and the use of standards. Particular attention will be paid to methodologies not usually directly discussed in first year substantive courses.

March 31, 2010

§ 2-307. Legal Research and Writing (5339, 5240).

- (a) Legal Research and Writing I is a required course for three semester hours of graded credit.
- (b) Legal Research and Writing II is a required course for two semester hours of graded credit.
- (c) The receiving of credit in Legal Research and Writing I is a prerequisite for enrollment in Legal Research and Writing II.
- (d) The instructor of the course shall have the discretion not to give a final examination.
- (e) In publications, the description of the courses shall be approximately as follows:

In Legal Research and Writing I, students learn basic skills of legal research, writing, analysis, and citation. Students develop research strategies using federal and state codes, digests, secondary sources, and on-line sources. Students then use those sources to write objective/predictive memoranda designed to teach legal analysis in progressively more difficult settings. The writing process requires the students to write multiple drafts and get extensive feedback throughout the process.

Legal Research and Writing II builds on the skills introduced in Legal Research and Writing I. Research skills are enhanced as the students learn to research loose-leaf services, court rules, constitutions, and administrative sources. The focus is on persuasive writing through the writing of court documents such as trial and appellate briefs. Students also participate in oral argument.

PART 4 – PARTICULARS OF ELECTIVE OFFERINGS

§ 2-401. Seminars.

(a) A seminar provides a small group learning environment conducive to the development of lawyering skills through legal writing and class participation.

(b) Each student will write a substantive paper following the guidelines set forth in Section 2-501. This paper may satisfy the student's Rigorous Writing Requirement.

(c) Seminar class size limitations:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (c)(2) the number of students enrolled in a seminar shall not exceed twelve.

(2) On a class-by-class basis, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the instructor of a seminar may decide that the enrollment in a seminar may exceed twelve but in no event shall enrollment exceed sixteen.

(d) Many of the courses that may be offered as seminars also may be offered for either two or three hours of credit. If a course is offered as a seminar for three hours of credit, it must contain more rigorous requirements (not just a greater number of minutes in the classroom) than the same seminar would if it were offered for only two hours of credit.

- (c) Prerequisites for taking the course are all first year courses.
- (d) In publications, the description of the course shall be approximately as follows:

This course in animal law will introduce students to those principles, rules, and regulations -- as developed by common law and from statute -- that affect animals. Starting with a summary of historical origins, the course will examine such laws in their philosophical, scientific, and practical underpinnings, and from a variety of differing perspectives, exploring how the law has treated animals in the past and may treat them in the future, both locally and nationally. From the foundational (How are animals defined? Can animals have standing? Are animals property?) to the pragmatic (What procedural obstacles might confront claims made on behalf of animals? What substantive constraints might prosecuting an animal cruelty case entail?) the course will address diverse questions and answers in such areas as: contract, tort and constitutional law; protections under criminal and civil statutes; cruelty and abuse laws; legal standing for animals; treatment of laboratory animals; ownership and valuation issues; custody areas; and ethical and legal dilemmas posed by the capture, confinement, and commercial use of animals.

PART 5 – WRITING REQUIREMENTS

§ 2-501. Rigorous Writing Requirement.

(a) Among the requirements for the J. D. degree is the satisfactory fulfillment of the Rigorous Writing Requirement. The purpose of the Rigorous Writing Requirement is to give each student a challenging experience in legal research, problem solving, organization, legal reasoning, and legal writing. It may involve interdisciplinary work, the integration of theory and application, probing fundamental legal values, analysis of the current state of the law, and/or advocacy of a particular position. Satisfaction of the Rigorous Writing Requirement must involve a close working relationship with the supervising professor.

(b) The Rigorous Writing Requirement may be satisfied in any of the following ways:

(1) By writing a paper or other document in connection with a seminar (or other upper-level course in which each student is required to write a paper) taught by a full-time faculty member (or, with permission of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, by an adjunct faculty member).

(2) By writing an article or comment for potential publication by the Law Review, if the author is a member of the Law Review staff or board. This writing must be under the supervision of a full-time faculty member, but not necessarily the faculty advisor to the Law Review. It must be at least 6,500 words in length, exclusive of footnotes, and must be of such quality that it is, in the opinion of the supervising professor, substantially publishable.

(3) By writing any portion of an appellate brief prepared for and submitted in an interscholastic moot court competition for which the student is entitled to and receives a grade of “P” and course credit pursuant to § 2-450a.

(4) With permission of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, by writing a directed research paper under the supervision of a full-time faculty member.

(c) The requirements for a paper satisfying the Rigorous Writing Requirements under (b)(1) or (b)(4) of this section are as follows:

(1) If written in connection with a course, it shall be on some aspect of the subject matter of the course.

(2) It shall be a substantial paper resulting from extensive research. It shall be at least 6,500 words in length, exclusive of footnotes. Each student shall be required to submit a word count, excluding footnotes, with the final draft.

(3) It shall be a product of high caliber that demonstrates the student's ability to define a research problem and to do legal analysis. It shall be properly footnoted or end-noted in a form approved by the supervising professor.

(4) Before the student is given approval to write the paper, he or she shall submit a 100-200 word executive summary of the proposed paper, explaining the nature of the subject and how he or she plans to cover it.

(5) Prior to the student's submission of a draft, the supervising professor shall examine and approve an outline of the proposed paper.

(6) Prior to the student's submission of the final paper, the supervising professor shall critically evaluate at least one draft of the student's work.

(7) If written in connection with a seminar or other course in which each student is required to write a paper, the final paper must qualify for a grade no lower than C+ or the equivalent thereof. If written as a directed research paper, the final paper shall be of such quality that, if it were written and graded to meet a requirement of a seminar, it would receive a grade no lower than C+ or the equivalent thereof.

(8) Prior to approval of the final paper, the student shall confer with the supervising professor at least twice, and more times if required by the professor.

(d) The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may waive or modify the provisions of the Rigorous Writing Requirement for any student who attended the law school before the fall semester of 1999.

(e) If the supervising professor approves the final paper, he or she shall complete and deliver to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs the following certification:

I certify that _____ (name of student) _____ has written a paper that satisfies the Rigorous Writing Requirement. The student wrote the paper _____ in connection with the course, _____; the paper qualified for a grade no lower than C+ (or the equivalent thereof).

_____ as an article or comment for the Law Review; the paper is substantially publishable.

_____ as directed research; the paper would receive a grade no lower than C+ (or the equivalent thereof) if it were written and graded to meet a requirement of a seminar.

_____ as a portion of a brief for an interscholastic moot court competition for which the student is entitled to and will receive (or has received) a grade of "P" and course credit.

§ 3-304. Full-time Student's Study during First Year.

A first year full-time student must take those courses prescribed by the faculty and may not add or drop classes except that the student may withdraw completely from school. Nor may a first year full-time student change to part-time status during the course of a semester once begun; the student must either complete the semester as a full-time student or withdraw from school.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-305. [Reserved]

§ 3-306. Dropping Courses without Cause.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 3-304 and 3-305 and of Subsection 3-403(d), a student may drop a course or courses at any time prior to the close of business on the fourth Friday of the semester (or, for sessions shorter than a regular semester, at any time prior to the close of business on the day immediately after 27% of the session's classes have met).

(b) To drop a course, a student must submit a timely and properly completed form. A grade of "WP" will be assigned and appear on the student's transcript. The "WP" will not have any effect on the student's grade point average. The University's tuition adjustment policy will apply.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-307. Dropping Courses for Good Cause.

(a) After the deadline specified in Subsection 3-306(a), subject to the provisions of Sections 3-304 and 3-305 and of Subsection 3-403(d), a student may be allowed to drop without academic penalty a course (or courses) for good cause shown.

(b) "Good cause" shall be limited to well-documented, serious medical problems of the student or an immediate family member or death of an immediate family member.

(c) A request to drop must be in writing, with all supporting documents, and must be delivered to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs prior to the start of the scheduled final examination for the course.

(d) The request to drop must be approved by both the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the instructor of the course.

(e) If the request to drop is approved, a grade of "WP" shall be assigned and appear on the student's transcript. The University's tuition adjustment policy will apply.

(f) If the request to drop without academic penalty is not approved, the same shall be communicated promptly to the student. If the student desires to drop despite the imposition of academic penalty, the student shall be assigned a grade of "WF". The University's tuition adjustment policy will apply.

(g) Once the student has indicated a desire to drop a course despite the imposition of academic penalty, the student shall not be permitted to withdraw from that course by a withdrawal pursuant to Section 3-902.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-308. Retaking Course.

A student who receives a grade of 0.00 or “WF” in any required course must enroll in that same course in the first subsequent semester in which that course is offered.

§ 3-309. Visiting Privileges at Another Law School.

(a) The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may approve the petition of a student requesting visiting privileges at an ABA-approved law school or program if (1) the visit would serve the best interests of both the student and Jones School of Law, (2) the petitioner’s cumulative grade point average at the law school is 2.00 or higher, and (3) either the petitioner has a special interest in taking a concentration of courses in a defined subject matter, and the law school will not be able to offer that concentration of courses during the petitioner’s period of attendance at the law school; or the petitioner shows that hardship will result if visiting status is not granted. “Hardship” will normally consist of compelling medical or employment circumstances in the petitioner’s family.

(b) In all cases, the petitioner must provide the course description for each course to be taken at the other law school, and receive pre-approval of the course(s) from the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

(c) Residence credit shall be granted to students on visiting status.

PART 4 – ATTENDANCE

§ 3-401. Requirement of Attendance and Preparation.

Students are required to attend class meetings in the courses for which they are registered, and to be prepared to participate in the class discussion.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-402. Attendance for Part of Class.

Each faculty member has absolute discretion to deem absent a student who arrives late for, or leaves early from, a class meeting.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-403. Limitation on Number of Absences.

(a) Any first year student whose absences exceed 15% of all classes or any upper division student whose absences exceed 20% of all classes as specified in Section 3-404 shall not further participate in class, shall not be allowed to sit for the final examination, and shall be given a grade of “WF.”

(b) Absences are counted from the first class meeting of the course, regardless of when a student actually registers for a course.

(c) Once a student has been absent from more than the maximum permitted number of class meetings as specified in Section 3-404, the student shall not be permitted to drop the course pursuant to Section 3-306 or 3-307 or to withdraw from the course pursuant to Section 3-902.

§ 3-404. Maximum Number of Absences Permitted.

(a) Each semester, the maximum number of absences permitted by the 15% or 20% rule shall be the same for all courses that regularly meet the same number of times each week for the entire semester; for each category of course, such maximum number shall conclusively be deemed the following:

	15% rule	20% rule
Courses regularly meeting 4 times each week all semester	8	12
Courses regularly meeting 3 times each week all semester	6	9
Courses regularly meeting 2 times each week all semester	4	6
Courses regularly meeting 1 time each week all semester	2	3

(b) For summer courses, the maximum number of absences permitted shall be 5. For the externship class, the maximum number of absences permitted shall be 2.

§ 3-405. Instructor's Discretion to Adopt Stricter Policy.

A faculty member may, at his or her option, adopt a policy requiring a higher level of attendance and lower the course grade when the student's absences exceed those specified in the policy, provided that said policy is in writing and communicated to students at the first class of the semester.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-406. Procedures.

After each class, each faculty member shall submit to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs daily class rosters signed by all students in attendance. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall record dates of absences for each student on a master class roster.

PART 5 – STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

§ 3-501. Employment Limitation on Student Taking More than 12 Hours.

A student shall not engage in remunerative employment for more than 20 hours per week (whether outside or inside the law school) in any semester in which the student is enrolled in more than 12 semester hours.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-502. Employment Certification by Student Taking More than 12 Hours.

(a) At the beginning of each semester in which a student is enrolled in more than 12 semester hours, the student shall sign a statement certifying that the student is not engaged in remunerative employment for more than 20 hours per week and that he or she will not be so engaged during the remainder of the semester.

(b) Signing such a statement that is false is a violation of the Honor Code and shall be grounds for any sanction identified in the Honor Code, including expulsion from the law school.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-503. Full-time First Year Students.

Full-time first year students are discouraged from engaging in any type of remunerative employment.

September 21, 2004

PART 6 – EXAMINATIONS

§ 3-601. Time for Final Examinations.

No final examination shall be given at any time earlier than during the examination period which follows the end of the last regularly scheduled class of each session.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-602. Length of Final Examinations.

(a) The final examination shall be of suitable length and complexity to serve as an accurate evaluation of scholastic achievement.

(b) The time length of any final examination shall approximate the credit hours assigned to that particular course. However, no final examination shall exceed 3½ hours in length, with the exception of a “take-home” examination.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-603. Waiver of Requirement of Final Examination.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall have the discretion to waive, on a case-by-case basis, the requirement of a final examination in any course designated for a final examination in Part 3 or 4 of Chapter Two.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-604. Taking Examinations at Other than Scheduled Times.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) hereof, all students shall take each examination at its scheduled time.

(b) Before the examination. Prior to the scheduled time for an examination, only the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs has the authority to permit a student to take an examination at a time other than its scheduled time.

(1) A student shall be granted a departure from the examination schedule for a conflict of examinations scheduled simultaneously. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall post the final examination schedule at least three weeks prior to the last scheduled day of classes. A student claiming a conflict shall notify the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the conflict no later than one week after the examination schedule is posted. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall promptly notify faculty members of conflicts, preserving the anonymity of the examination process. The student shall take the make-up examination at such time as shall be determined by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

(2) A student may be granted a short delay from the examination schedule for a course or courses, provided the student or an immediate family member has a serious medical emergency or on account of a death of an immediate family member or on account of other exigent circumstances. The student must petition the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs as soon as possible before the examination and provide credible, objective evidence (e.g., a letter from a licensed medical doctor) of the nature and extent of the serious medical emergency or such evidence of the death of the immediate family member or such evidence of other exigent circumstances. If the petition is approved, arrangements shall be made with the faculty member for the student to take a make-up examination as soon as is practical. Due to the impracticability of maintaining anonymous grading for a make-up examination, the student waives the right to claim a grievance based on arbitrary and capricious grading.

(3) Every reasonable effort shall be made (i) to draft the academic calendar to exclude examinations on religious days of worship and holidays, and (ii) to allow a student with a religious conflict with an examination time to take such examination at another time provided that the conflict has been substantiated to the satisfaction of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

(c) After the Examination.

(1) If a student misses an examination without having requested relief pursuant to subsection (b) hereof, the student shall receive a grade of "0.00" for the examination unless the student petitions the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in writing to make up the examination and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs grants some form of relief. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall not consider such a petition if the student has requested relief pursuant to subsection (b) hereof; when the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs does consider such a petition, the student shall have the burden of overcoming a presumption that the petition should be denied.

(2) The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may grant the student permission to make up the examination, or may provide such other relief and/or sanctions as he or she may deem appropriate under the circumstances, after consultation with the affected professor(s). Relief may only be granted under this subsection if the student or an immediate family member had a serious medical emergency or on account of a death of an immediate family member or on account of other exigent circumstances. The student must petition for permission to make up the examination by submitting to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs a written petition as soon as possible after the examination. The petition should provide credible, objective evidence (e.g., a letter from a licensed doctor) of the nature and extent of the serious medical emergency or of the death of the immediate family member or of other exigent circumstances. The petition must also set forth why the student failed to request relief pursuant to subsection (b) hereof.

(3) If the petition is approved and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs grants permission to take a make-up examination, arrangements shall be made with the faculty member for the student to take a make-up examination as soon as is practical. Due to the impracticability of maintaining anonymous grading for a make-up examination, the student waives the right to claim a grievance based on arbitrary and capricious grading.

§ 3-605. Examinations Other than Final Examinations.

(a) The instructor of each class of Civil Procedure I, Criminal Law, Torts, and Foundations of Law shall give an examination during the semester. PART 7 – GRADES

§ 3-701. Preamble.

It is the sense of the faculty that every faculty member should be guided by responsibility and professionalism when assigning grades in any law school course. Responsibility and professionalism include, among other factors, the basic premise that a faculty member should not give students false hope by assigning favorable grades to students who demonstrate little chance of success on the bar examination and in the practice of law.

Faculty members must not be reluctant to assign a “0.00” to any student in any course when the student’s performance demonstrates either an inability to grasp basic concepts of the course or an inability to apply basic analytical reasoning skills in an examination or other performance measure of the student’s course work.

Every faculty member has an ethical obligation to adhere to the grading standards adopted by the faculty. Faculty members teaching different sections of the same course in a semester should confer with each other to make every effort to have consistency in grading for the course.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-702. Grading Standards.

(a) The following grade distribution percentages shall be used in every course with twenty or more students with the exception of Legal Research and Writing I and II, Professional Skills courses and seminar courses.

Mandatory norms and ranges for first year courses:

Grade	Norm	Mandatory Range
4.00, 3.67	10%	0	to	15%
3.33, 3.00, 2.67	40%	25	to	55%
2.33, 2.00, 1.67	40%	25	to	55%
1.33, 1.00, 0.50, 0.00	10%	5	to	15%

Mandatory norms and ranges for elective courses and for Constitutional Law I and II, Evidence, Business Associations, Professional Responsibility, and Remedies:

Grade	Norm	Mandatory Range
4.00, 3.67	15%	0	to	25%
3.33, 3.00, 2.67	40%	25	to	60%
2.33, 2.00, 1.67	40%	25	to	60%
1.33, 1.00, 0.50, 0.00	5%	0	to	15%

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) hereof, a faculty member shall not assign grades in a course with a mean in excess of the mean specified in subsection (c) hereof. Faculty members may, and are encouraged to, assign grades below the maximum mean when appropriate in any course.

(c) The maximum mean grade in each of the first year, first semester courses shall be 2.50. The maximum mean grade in each of the first year, second semester courses shall be 2.70. The maximum mean grade in each of the following courses shall be 2.75: Constitutional Law I and II, Evidence, Business Associations, and Professional Responsibility. The maximum mean grade in Remedies and each elective course in the curriculum shall be 3.00.

(d) The grades of students who fail the course for non-attendance or who withdraw from the course and are assigned a failing grade shall be used in the calculation of the maximum mean. If a student withdraws from a course with the mark of "WP" but has already earned a grade in the course, that grade shall not be used in the calculation of the maximum mean.

(e) Because of the difficulty of applying grading standards in a uniform manner in every course, the faculty and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs should be guided by Section 3-701 and common sense when applying the grading standards specified in this section. The following are examples of application of the grading standards in special circumstances:

(1) It is possible that a particular course has a disproportionate number of better-than-average students because of the nature of the course material or other factors. Thus, deviation from the maximum mean for a course may be appropriate when the average of the cumulative grade point averages of the students in the course is higher than the maximum mean specified by the grading standards.

(2) A course with very few students presents special problems in applying a maximum mean.

§ 3-703. Values.

(a) The grades and marks assigned at the law school shall have the following values:

4.00	1.33
3.67	1.00
3.33	0.50
3.00	0.00
2.67	0.00 (Withdrawn Failing)
2.33	Pass – Satisfactory

2.00
1.67

Incomplete
Withdrawn Passing

(b) Course credit shall not be given for a grade of "0.00" or "WF", but the numerical grade equivalent of 0.00 shall be used in calculating the student's cumulative grade point average.

(c) If a student receives a grade of "0.00" or "WF" in a course, the subsequent successful completion of the course shall not remove the prior failing grade from the student's transcript, and the 0.00 for the prior failing grade shall continue to be used in calculating the student's cumulative grade point average.

(d) Course credit shall be given for a grade of "P", but no numerical grade equivalent shall be assigned and the grade shall not affect the cumulative grade point average.

(e) Course credit shall not be given for a mark of "I" or "WP", and the mark shall not affect the cumulative grade point average.

§ 3-704. Class Participation's Effect on Grade.

A professor may take into account the quality of a student's class participation in determining the course grade, provided this policy is described in writing to students no later than the second class meeting. However, the maximum amount by which a student's participation may positively or negatively influence the student's grade is 0.34.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-705. Anonymous Grading.

(a) In any course in which the final grade is determined in whole or in part by a written examination, all parts of the examination shall be graded anonymously.

(b) In any course in which students may receive credit for factors in addition to the final examination (such as written work submitted during the semester or class participation), the instructor shall make a preliminary submission of each student's (1) examination grade (or score), (2) grade (or score) for each other factor for which credit is being given, and (3) proportionate weighting for each factor. Using that data, the administration shall calculate each student's preliminary grade (or score) and return to the instructor all of those grades (or scores) accompanied only with the students' secret numbers. Taking into account Sections 3-701 and 3-702, the instructor shall then determine the actual grade to be assigned to each secret number.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-706. "Pass" Offerings.

The grade of "P" shall be assigned only in those offerings which are specifically designated for such grade in Parts 3 and 4 of Chapter Two. In each of those offerings, each student shall receive a grade of either "P" or "1.00" or "0.00".

September 21, 2004

§ 3-707. Use of "I"

(a) With the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, an instructor may assign the mark of "I" when the student is not able to complete the course work by the end of the semester due to circumstances beyond the student's control, such as a change in the law on which the student is writing a paper or a carryover of clinical casework beyond the semester.

(b) The course work must be completed at the time prescribed by the instructor, but no later than the end of the subsequent semester.

(c) The mark of "I" shall be replaced with an earned grade only by the instructor after the course work has been completed. A student shall not enroll in the same course taught by a different instructor in order to remove the "I".

(d) If the course work is not completed at the time prescribed by the instructor, the mark of "I" shall be replaced with the grade of "0.00".

September 21, 2004

§ 3-708. Procedures for Recording Grades.

(a) To ensure compliance with the grading standards specified in Section 3-702, all grades shall be submitted to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs for approval prior to entry on the students' records.

(b) When the grades submitted violate the grading standards, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall confer with the instructor. The instructor may decide to adjust the grades to comply with the grading standards. If the instructor does not so adjust the grades, any decision to change the grades in order to comply with the grading standards shall be made by the dean upon recommendation of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

(c) An instructor shall not change any student's grade after the course grade sheet has been submitted to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, except for documented mathematical errors or to comply with the grading standards.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-709. Procedures Governing the Appeal of a Final Grade.

(a) These procedures are an attempt to ensure fairness in the independent and professional judgment of faculty members with regard to the assignment of final grades for students. These procedures are intended to serve the mission of the law school through the preservation of integrity in the achievement of its academic and professional goals.

(b) Right to Petition. Any student who has received a final grade in a course at the law school may initiate a grievance with regard to the grade by filing a petition with the Academic Standards Committee (referred to in this section as “the committee”).

(c) How and When Petition Is to Be Filed.

(1) A petition may be filed with the committee by hand-delivering or mailing it to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs no later than forty-five days after the final grade in question is posted. A petition filed by mailing shall be deemed to have been filed on the date of the postmark of the petition. A petition filed by hand-delivery shall be deemed to have been filed on the date of receipt.

(2) For purposes of calculating the forty-five day period, the day of posting the final grade shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which case the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday. The committee in its discretion may for good cause shown extend the forty-five day period.

(d) Form of Petition. A petition shall be addressed to the chairperson of the committee, must be signed by the petitioner, and shall state all of the following:

- (1) The name and student number of the student filing the petition;
- (2) The title of the course in which the final grade was received;
- (3) The name of the professor who taught the course;
- (4) The date on which the final grade in question was posted;
- (5) The reason(s) the petitioner believes he or she is entitled to relief in accordance with the requirements set forth in subsection (e) hereof; and
- (6) The specific relief requested.

(e) Requirements of a Grievance Claim. In order for a petition to state a grievance upon which relief can be granted, it must satisfy the requirements of both subsection (1) and subsection (2) hereof. A petition states a grievance claim upon which relief can be granted if it specifies that:

(1) The petitioner has consulted or attempted to consult with and request relief from the professor involved, and the professor either (i) has refused to consult with the student, or (ii) has not been conveniently available for a period of 15 days after the grade was posted, or (iii) after consultation with the petitioner, has declined to grant relief acceptable to the petitioner;

AND

(2) The grade received was unfair, or substantially inappropriate, for one or more of the following reasons:

- a. An error in computation was made in calculating the grade; or
- b. The grade received was the result of arbitrary and capricious grading by the professor against the student by which the professor did not make a good faith effort to assign final grades in accordance with his or her academic judgment. In addition, if the grade was received in a course graded anonymously, in whole or in part, and the claim of arbitrariness or capriciousness relates to that part of the grade that was anonymous, there must also be an allegation of a breach of anonymity. (Moreover, the student must establish, by a preponderance of evidence, that anonymity was breached.)

(f) Professor's Academic Judgment. In no event shall there be an inquiry into the professor's academic judgment or prerogative and responsibility for assigning grades as his or her judgment and conscience dictate.

(g) When and How the Committee Shall Consider Petition. The committee shall make every reasonable effort to act on petition within a period of 15 days from the time a petition is filed, during which period the committee shall also give the affected faculty member a copy of the petition. If the petition is not acted upon for any reason within this period, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied.

(h) Actions and Procedures Available to the Committee in Considering Petition. The committee, after due deliberation and by majority vote, may take one or more of the following actions and allied procedures in response to a petition:

- (1) Determine that the facts stated in the petition, if true, do not state a grievance upon which relief can be granted: in which case the committee shall write a decision to that effect and send a copy, with any dissenting opinion, to the petitioner and to the professor.
- (2) Determine that the facts stated in the petition, if true, state a grievance upon which relief can be granted: in which case the committee shall notify the professor whose actions are the subject of the petition and select a time when the petitioner and the professor can be present for a hearing on the petition.

a. Both the petitioner and the professor shall be permitted to be present during the hearing, but no person shall be required to attend the hearing. The parties may make arguments, answer questions, and offer such evidence as they desire. The committee shall be the judge of the relevance and materiality of the evidence, and conformity to legal rules of evidence shall not be necessary. The committee may limit reasonably any oral presentations.

b. Final Action by the Committee

1. In a case where the committee finds no action is appropriate, the committee shall so notify the petitioner and the professor.

2. If any recommendation is made by the committee, it shall be made to the professor in writing, stating the recommendations and the reasons therefore.

(i) If the professor accepts the recommendations of the committee, the professor may change the disputed grade pursuant to the recommendation of the committee. A professor may acquiesce with the committee's recommendation and initiate the change of grade by forwarding a copy of the recommendation and written acquiescence thereto to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, who, upon receipt of same, shall effect the change of grade.

(ii) If the professor declines to accept the recommendation of the committee within a period of three days from receipt of the recommendation, the committee shall then issue a written decision, and provide a copy to the professor and the petitioner. The grade shall be changed only if a majority of the committee finds that the final grade was assigned for one or more of the reasons listed in (e)(2) above; in the case of such a finding, the committee shall provide copies of its written decision to the professor, the petitioner, the faculty, and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, who shall effect the change of grade upon receipt of the written decision.

PART 8 – RECOGNITION OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

§ 3-801. Dean's Honor Roll.

The Dean's Honor Roll, also commonly known as the Dean's List, is published to recognize students for their outstanding academic achievement in the immediately preceding semester. Students enrolled for eight or more hours in that semester who achieved at least a 3.33 grade point average shall be placed on the Dean's Honor Roll.

§ 3-802. Academic Ranking.

(a) Each student who matriculates at Jones School of Law shall be ranked at the end of each fall semester and each spring semester he or she completes, except as provided below in § 3-804 (c)(2), (c)(3), and (c)(4).

(b) All rankings shall be based on grade point average.

(c) The office of the registrar shall compose an official class ranking following each semester in conformance with the academic regulations contained herein. Students shall be entitled to request, in writing, and receive their current class rank from the registrar's office. Upon a student's graduation, a student's final class ranking shall appear on his or her official transcript. The following guidelines are to be applied:

(1) First and Second Year Law Students.

Students will be ranked their first and second year of law school against all other students who matriculated with them.

(2) Final Year Law Students.

No student will receive a rank during the fall semester of his or her final year. Any student who completes his or her degree requirements in August or December will not be provided an academic ranking until the following spring along with his or her graduation class.

(3) Students Returning from Leave.

When a student returns from an authorized leave of absence, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall determine and communicate in writing to the registrar with which class of students the returning student shall be ranked.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall make this decision based upon which group of students most accurately reflects the class peers of the returning student. If the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs determines that no class accurately reflects a returning student's class, the Associate Dean has the authority to declare that the student will not be ranked.

(4) Transfer Students.

No student who transfers into the school shall receive a class ranking from the school. Students who return to the law school to take courses after a transfer out will not be ranked upon their return to the school.

(5) This ranking system shall be implemented beginning with the class matriculating in the fall of 2011.

(a) All full-time and part-time students who began law school at Jones School of Law shall be grouped for ranking into the following groups:

(1) Students who have completed 31 hours or less.

(2) Students who have completed 32 to 67 hours.

(3) Students who have completed 68 hours or more but are not in the graduating class. For purposes of academic rankings, the term "graduating class" shall be defined as all students appearing on the graduation program in June.

(4) The graduating class. Students who complete their degree requirements in August and December will not receive a final academic ranking until the following June.

(b) Academic rankings shall be based on grade point average.

(c) Academic rankings shall be assigned as a number indicating the numerical class standing relative to the entire group (i.e., X of Y, where X is the student's rank and Y is the total number of students in the group being ranked).

(d) This ranking system shall be implemented at the end of the spring 2007 semester.]

PART 9 – INTERRUPTION OF ACADEMIC PROGRESS

§ 3-901. Dismissal for Failure to Continue in the Next Semester.

If a student completes a semester but fails to continue his or her studies in the immediately following semester, the student shall be dismissed from the law school.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-902. Approved Withdrawal, and Dismissal Thereafter.

(a) The Dean, or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs when the dean so authorizes him or her, shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over the approving of withdrawals from the program.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Sections 3-306 and 3-307 and Subsection 3-403(d), any student may withdraw from the law school program at any time provided a written request for complete withdrawal is approved in writing by the Dean or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

(c) Except as provided for first-year students in subsection (d) or (e) hereof, if a student receives approval to withdraw but is not granted a leave of absence, he or she must continue his or her studies in the semester immediately following the withdrawal. If such student fails to continue his or her studies in such semester, the student shall be dismissed from the law school.

(d) If a student in his or her second semester receives approval to withdraw but is not granted a leave of absence, that student must continue his or her studies in the second semester immediately following the withdrawal. If such student fails to continue his or her studies in such semester, the student shall be dismissed from the law school.

(e) If a student in his or her first semester receives approval to withdraw but is not granted a leave of absence, he or she shall not be dismissed for failure to continue his or her studies and may apply for readmission in any year following the withdrawal.

(f) If a student receives approval to withdraw and later continues his or her studies, the student shall be subject to Section 3-105 as it reads at the time of the student's continuation of studies, except that a change in the number of hours in a required course shall not operate to the detriment of the returning student.

§ 3-903. Leave of Absence, and Dismissal Thereafter.

(a) The Dean, or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs when the dean so authorizes him or her, shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over the granting of leaves of absence.

(b) If, for good cause, a student finds it necessary to interrupt progress toward his or her degree, a leave of absence may be granted in writing by the dean or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, specifying the duration of the leave.

(c) Only a well-documented request based upon extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the student (e.g., medical/psychological circumstances, death in the family, or other family crisis) shall constitute good cause. Good cause shall not include the desire to await accreditation.

(d) A student must have a grade point average of 2.00 or higher, and must present the petition for a leave of absence to the dean or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

(e) The petition must state clearly and completely the reasons for the leave and the duration of the leave.

(f) A leave of absence may be granted for a maximum of one year and can be approved only once during a student's matriculation at the law school.

(g) If a student is granted a leave of absence and later continues his or her studies, the student shall be subject to Section 3-105 as it reads at the time of the student's continuation of studies, except that a change in the number of hours in a required course shall not operate to the detriment of the returning student.

(h) If a student is granted a leave of absence and fails to continue his or her studies at the specified time, the student shall be dismissed from the law school.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-904. Academic Good Standing.

In order to remain in good standing, a student must:

(a) At the conclusion of each semester, attain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00.

(b) In this manual, unless otherwise specified, grade point averages shall be rounded to three significant digits. For example, a 1.995 or greater will be rounded to 2.00 but a 1.994 will be rounded to a 1.99 and not a 2.00.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-905. Probation, Dismissal, and Eligibility for Reinstatement.

(a) Any first year student whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.15 at the end of the first semester of study shall be placed on academic probation. Any student placed on academic probation shall be required to meet with the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs (or his/her designee) no later than the fifth day of classes of the second semester. The Associate Dean of Academic Affairs will counsel the student concerning his/her chances for successfully completing the academic program at the law school and may require the student (as a condition of academic probation) to participate in any portion or portions of the Academic Success Program that the associate dean shall deem appropriate.

(b) At the conclusion of the first semester of the first year, any student whose cumulative grade point average is 1.50 or below shall be dismissed from the law school and shall not be eligible for reinstatement. At the conclusion of the second semester of the first year, any student whose cumulative grade point average is below 2.00 and had been placed on probation during the second semester shall be dismissed from the law school and shall not be eligible for reinstatement.

(c) Any student not described in subsection (a) hereof whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.00 shall be dismissed from the law school.

- (1) Any such student whose cumulative grade point average is below 1.80 shall be dismissed from the law school and shall not be eligible for reinstatement.
- (2) Any student whose cumulative grade point average is at least 1.95 may petition the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, pursuant to sections 3-906 through 3-909, for reinstatement on academic probation for one semester (the probationary semester). If the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs refuses to reinstate the student, the student may petition the academic standards committee pursuant to sections 3-906 through 3-909.
- (3) Any such student whose cumulative grade point average is at least 1.80 shall be allowed to petition the Academic Standards Committee pursuant to Sections 3-906 – 3-909, for reinstatement for one semester on academic probation (the probationary semester).

§ 3-906. Reinstatement Possible Only Once.

A student may be reinstated only once.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-907. Grounds for Reinstatement.

The Academic Standards Committee shall reinstate a student only when it determines that (a) there were extraordinary circumstances that caused the academic deficiency, (b) there is a strong likelihood that the student will achieve a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher at the end of the probationary semester, and (c) there is a strong likelihood that the student will achieve a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher in each semester thereafter.

*September 21, 2004
Rev. March 6, 2009*

§ 3-908. Procedures for Reinstatement.

(a) The Academic Standards Committee shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over reinstatement decisions and it shall develop procedures to conduct reinstatement hearings.

(b) A student who has been dismissed from the law school but has petitioned for reinstatement shall be reinstated only by an affirmative vote of a majority of all faculty members present and voting who serve on the Academic Standards Committee, provided a quorum is present. For the purposes of this section a quorum consists of more than fifty percent of all members serving on the committee.

(c) A student shall initiate a petition for reinstatement by preparing a written petition addressed to the chair of the Academic Standards Committee. The petition shall describe the student's academic circumstances, state the extraordinary circumstances that caused the academic deficiency, and indicate why and how the student expects to make sufficient improvement to have a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher at the end of the probationary semester.

(d) The student is entitled to make a personal appearance before the Academic Standards Committee, to answer questions, and to offer argument on behalf of the petition.

(e) If the Academic Standards Committee decides to reinstate the student, it may attach such conditions to its decision as it deems to be in the best interests of the student and the law school under the particular circumstances involved.

(f) The Academic Standards Committee's decision on the petition for reinstatement shall be final and not subject to reconsideration.

§ 3-909. Deadline for Reinstatement.

(a) Any reinstatement must be for a semester or session which is no later than the third regular (fall or spring) semester following the academic term in which the student's performance caused the cumulative grade point average to fall below 2.00.

(b) If the petition is for reinstatement in the third regular semester following the student's performance which caused the cumulative grade point average to fall below 2.00, the petition must be submitted at least three weeks before the first class of that semester.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-910. Dismissal after Reinstatement.

If a student is reinstated and does not achieve a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher at the end of the probationary semester, the student shall be dismissed from the law school and shall not be eligible for reinstatement.

September 21, 2004

§ 3-911. Faculty procedure and authority after removal from Honor Court.

(a) As chief administrative officer of the law school, the Dean or his designee shall have plenary authority to discipline or dismiss from law school any student or otherwise resolve any student disciplinary matter as warranted by the circumstances. If the Dean acts under this section, he shall promptly report any action to the faculty for its review.

(b) In the case where the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or the faculty removes a particular case from the honor court pursuant to Art. IV, Section 4.1 of the Honor Code, the student will be provided with notice and an opportunity to be heard by the faculty. The faculty may then recommend a resolution to the Dean. This matter may be resolved in any manner the faculty recommends or the Dean sees fit. Nothing in this subparagraph is intended to or may be interpreted to conflict with or supersede the Dean's plenary authority described in § 3-911(a).

CHAPTER FOUR ~ ADMISSIONS

PART 1 – BEGINNING STUDENTS

§ 4-101. Authority of Admissions Committee.

- (a) The Admissions Committee shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over the admission of beginning students.
- (b) No person shall be admitted without the affirmative vote of a majority of the Admissions Committee.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-102. Admissions Goals.

A crucial part of the mission of the law school is to provide access to legal education to students with diverse backgrounds and life experiences, including those who might not otherwise have the opportunity to study law. The law school admits into its J.D. degree program applicants who have satisfied its educational prerequisites and who appear capable of satisfactorily completing its educational requirements and being admitted to the profession.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-103. Educational Requirements.

- (a) The law school requires for admission to its degree program a bachelor's degree from an institution that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education.
- (b) The law school may grant conditional admission to a student who has not satisfied the educational requirement stated in subsection (a) hereof, provided that such requirement will be met before the student matriculates.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-104. Law School Admission Test.

(a) The law school requires all applicants to take the Law School Admission Test sponsored by the Law School Admission Council. The score earned by the applicant shall play a key role in the admission decision.

(b) For those applicants taking the Law School Admission Test more than once, the score used for admission shall be the highest of the scores earned on all tests taken.

(c) No LSAT score older than five years shall be considered in the admission process.

*September 21, 2004
Rev. June 2, 2006*

§ 4-105. Applicant Previously Disqualified by Another Law School.

(a) The law school shall consider admitting a student who has been disqualified previously for academic reasons by another school upon an affirmative showing that the student possesses the requisite ability to succeed in the study of law and that the prior disqualification does not indicate a lack of capacity to complete the course of study at Jones School of Law. This showing shall be made by a letter from the disqualifying school or, if two or more years have elapsed since that disqualification, by the nature of interim work, activity, or studies indicating a stronger potential for law study.

(b) When such an applicant is admitted, the Admissions Committee shall place in the admittee's file a statement of the considerations that led to the decision to admit the applicant.

*September 21, 2004
Revised October 17, 2006*

§ 4-106. Applicant with LL.M. Degree.

(a) Each applicant to the J.D. program who has previously earned an LL.M. in an ABA-approved law school must furnish with the application a recent LSAT result.

(b) Once admitted, except as provided in subsection (c) hereof, such student shall complete all of the law school's requirements for other students earning the J.D. degree. Except as provided in subsection (d) hereof, such student shall not be admitted with advanced standing.

(c) The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may grant a waiver from re-enrolling in certain required courses successfully completed as an LL.M. student (e.g., Contracts). In such an instance, the student shall still be required to complete 90 semester hours by substituting elective courses for any courses that were waived.

(d) This policy does not preclude the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs from allowing credit consistent with ABA Standard 507.

September 21, 2004

PART 2 – READMITTED STUDENTS

§ 4-201. Authority of Admissions Committee.

(a) The Admissions Committee shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over the readmission of former students who have been dismissed or have withdrawn in their first semester.

(b) No person shall be readmitted without the affirmative vote of a majority of the Admissions Committee.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-202. Matriculation Two Years after Dismissal.

If a student has been dismissed from the law school pursuant to Section 3-901, 3-902, or 3-903, or has been dismissed pursuant to Section 3-905 and has not been reinstated, he or she may apply for readmission to the law school. If he or she is readmitted, he or she shall matriculate only after at least two years have elapsed since the dismissal. The student shall make a showing that during the interim, he or she has undertaken work, activity or studies to indicate a stronger potential for the study of law.

*September 21, 2004
Rev. October 17, 2006*

§ 4-203. Readmission on the Basis of Current Admission Standards.

The readmission decision shall be made by the Admissions Committee under then-current admission standards.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-204. Status of Readmitted Student.

(a) A student who has been dismissed and who is readmitted shall forfeit all credits previously earned and shall be readmitted as a first year, first semester student.

(b) The grade point average of a student who has been readmitted shall be based only on the work attempted since readmission. However, if the readmitted student shall have been dismissed pursuant to Section 3-905, his or her transcript shall continue to show the earlier courses attempted, the grades earned, and the dismissal.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-205. Statement in File.

In each case where readmission is granted, the Admissions Committee shall sign and place in the admittee's file a statement of the considerations that led to the decision to readmit the applicant.

September 21, 2004

PART 3 – TRANSFER STUDENTS

§ 4-301. Authority of Dean.

The Dean, or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs when the Dean so authorizes him or her, shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over the admission of transfer students and the awarding of transfer credit.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-302. Transfer Only When in Good Standing.

A student must be in good standing at the other law school at the time of transferring to Jones School of Law.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-303. Limitations on Transfer of Credit.

(a) All course work accepted for transfer must be taken either at an ABA-approved law school or in an ABA-approved program.

(b) No more than 30 semester hours of academic credits shall be accepted for transfer.

(c) The law school shall accept transfer credit only for courses in which the grade received is equal to or higher than the grade point average required for graduation at the other law school.

(d) Credit for any course required for graduation from Jones School of Law shall be accepted for transfer only when the course taken shall have been comparable to the course offered at Jones School of Law.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-304. "P" for All Transfer Credit.

All grades for which credit is transferred shall be entered as "P" on the student's records and shall not affect the student's cumulative grade point average.

September 21, 2004

PART 4 – VISITING STUDENTS

§ 4-401. Authority of Dean.

The Dean, or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs when the Dean so authorizes him or her, shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction over the extension of visiting privileges to students from other law schools for matriculation at Jones School of Law.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-402. Limitation on Use of Credits Earned Here.

When a student has been extended visiting privileges by Jones School of Law, the credits earned here may not be applied toward a degree from this law school.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-403. Student from ABA-approved Program, and with Appropriate Approval.

A student may be extended visiting privileges here only if he or she (a) is a student at an ABA-approved law school or program, and (b) has been approved for visiting privileges here by an appropriate official at the student's school of residence.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-404. Visiting Privileges Only When in Good Standing.

For visiting privileges, a student must be in good standing at the student's school of residence at the time of beginning the visit here.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-405. Best Interest of Jones School of Law.

A student may be admitted here for visiting privileges only if the visit serves the best interest of Jones School of Law.

September 21, 2004

§ 4-406 Jones School of Law Students Earning Credit At Other Law Schools.

(a) A student who is in good academic standing at the School of Law may earn credit at other ABA-approved law schools up to a maximum of 15 credit hours. Upon showing of a well-documented request based upon extenuating circumstances of hardship (e.g., medical/psychological circumstances, death in the family, or other family crisis), the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may allow the student to earn up to 30 credit hours at other ABA-approved law schools. No credit may be earned at law schools that are not ABA-approved.

(b) A student who is in good academic standing at the School of Law may participate in a summer abroad program sponsored by another ABA-approved law school subject to the credit hour limit above.

(c) A student who wishes to earn credit at another ABA-approved law school must receive the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs prior to enrollment at the other law school.

CHAPTER SIX ~ ENVIRONMENT

PART 1 – HONOR CODE

Article I. Purposes

§1.1 The purposes of this Honor Code are the following:

- (a) To preserve and protect the integrity of the Law School.
- (b) To promote the highest ethical standards among students, faculty, and staff.
- (c) To ensure that grades at the Law School are administered fairly.
- (d) To ensure that students who engage in ethical violations are duly disciplined while also ensuring that students who are wrongly accused of ethical violations are exonerated.

Article II. Definitions

§2.1 “Code” means this Honor Code.

§2.2 “Court” means the Honor Court, which is the official representative of law students in deciding questions about violations of the Code.

§2.3 “Instructor” is any full, associate, assistant, adjunct, or part-time professor, or any other person acting in a teaching capacity.

§2.4 “Interested faculty member” is the faculty member in whose course a violation of the Code is alleged to have occurred, regardless of whether that faculty member is the reporting party.

§2.5 “Law School” is Thomas Goode Jones School of Law.

§2.6 “Parties” include the suspected violator, the Prosecutor, Defense Counsel, and the interested faculty member, if any.

§2.7 To “publish” means to post a notice on the Law School’s bulletin board which is designated for announcements relating to the Code.

§2.8 “Quorum” is achieved when five or more Justices are present for a hearing of the Court.

§2.9 “Reporting party” is any person who reports a suspected violation of the Code. “The Report” is the report of a suspected violation.

§2.10 “Student” is any student admitted to, or enrolled in the Law School, including a student who is part-time, transferring, transient, auditing, or visiting from any other school.

§2.11 “Suspected violator” is any person reported as having violated the Code. Whenever the term appears in a procedural context, it also refers to the suspected violator’s counsel.

§2.12 “Unauthorized assistance” is the assistance that either the instructor or the Code specifies to be unauthorized.

§2.13 “Unauthorized material” is the material that either the instructor or the Code specifies to be unauthorized.

Article III. Violations of the Honor Code

§3.1 The following practices are violations of the Code:

(a) Plagiarism, which means representing, either expressly or by conduct, the work of another to be one’s own.

(b) Giving, obtaining, soliciting, or offering to provide unauthorized assistance in the preparation of material to be submitted or presented in a class, law review assignment or competition, moot court assignment or competition, essay contests for which eligibility is dependent on status as a law student, or any other similar activity.

(c) Using unauthorized materials in connection with class assignments or examinations.

(d) Concealing or stealing library books or other library materials, or withdrawing such materials from the library without properly checking them out, or defacing such books or materials, making copies without paying for them if payment is appropriate, failure to pay library fines, computer fraud, and software copyright infringements.

(e) Copying the work of another student during an examination or giving, soliciting, offering to give, or asking to receive or receiving any unauthorized assistance or information before or during an examination.

(f) Obtaining or possessing an examination, assignment, answer sheet, or similar material in advance of such time as one is entitled to possess it.

- (g) Commencing or accessing an examination before the stipulated time, including reading the contents of the exam or writing any notes or outlines or continuing to write after time has expired in an examination period.
- (h) Bringing to an examination any unauthorized electronic device. Such devices include, but are not limited to, cell phones, beepers, palm pilots, computers and word processors.
- (i) Doing anything which compromises the anonymity of an examination or assignment, including but not limited to actions or writings which would reveal one's identity to the professor, unless authorized to do so by the professor. This provision shall not be construed to conflict with any provision of the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- (j) Failing to disclose to a professor that work submitted for credit was wholly or substantially done prior to the beginning of the course for which the work is being submitted (or, in the case of the rigorous writing requirement, prior to the supervising professor's approval to write the paper).
- (k) Taking property of another without authorization or by fraud. Such property includes, but is not limited to, briefs, books, notes, tapes, computer software, data, or outlines belonging to a faculty member or another student.
- (l) Making a material misrepresentation to the administration, faculty, or staff of the Law School or Faulkner University. This provision specifically includes, but is not limited to, signing another student's name to the class attendance roll.
- (m) Revealing any confidential information presented during a proceeding before the Court.
- (n) Engaging in conduct, which, if done by a lawyer, would violate the Alabama Rules of Professional Conduct.
- (o) Engaging in conduct that adversely reflects on fitness to study or practice law, including but not limited to violations of federal or state criminal law, regardless of whether such conduct is actually prosecuted in the courts.
- (p) Attempting to commit any of the acts described in Subsections 3.1(a) - 3.1(o).
- (q) Knowing failure to report a violation of the Code, conspiring to violate the Code, or knowingly making a false report that another student has violated the Code.

Article IV. Jurisdiction and Terms of the Honor Court

§4.1 The Court shall have jurisdiction over all alleged violations of the Code as defined in Article III above, unless the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or a majority of the faculty vote to remove a particular case from the Court.

§4.2. Nothing in this code is intended to supersede the authority and responsibility of a faculty member to control conduct in his classroom, to determine what factors are to be considered in assigning a grade or credit for student performance, and to determine the appropriate grade or credit to be assigned. An aggrieved student may appeal his or her grade under the Academic Policies and Procedures of the Law School.

§4.3 Once a complaint has been filed pursuant to Subsection 6.4(a), there shall be no plea-bargaining among or between the Court, the Prosecutor, and the alleged violator without the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

§4.4 Each term of the Court will begin on the first day of the summer semester of the Law School and will end the next year on the day before the summer semester begins.

Article V. Members and Officers of the Court

§5.1 The voting members of the Court shall be seven students in good academic standing. A Chief Justice shall be elected by all students, in the spring semester for the upcoming term of the Court. The remaining student members shall be elected as follows: two at-large Justices from the third year class elected by the entire third year class, two at-large justices from the second year class elected by the entire second year class, and one Justice from each section of the first year class to be elected by their respective sections. The two first year members shall be elected within one month after the beginning of the fall semester; they shall become members of the Court as soon as they are elected. The remaining members shall be elected in the spring semester for the upcoming term of the Court.

§5.2 If during a term of the Court the position of Chief Justice becomes vacant, the remaining members of the Court shall select from among themselves a Chief Justice; the new Chief Justice shall then fill the vacancy on the Court by appointing any student in good academic standing, provided however that this appointment shall be approved by a majority of the Student Bar Association's elected officers. Any other vacancy on the Court shall be filled by the Chief Justice's appointing a student in good academic standing who is in the student group which originally elected the member whose position has become vacant, provided however that this appointment shall be approved by a majority of the Student Bar Association's elected officers of the Court. That faculty member shall (a) provide advice, recommendations, or other assistance as he may deem necessary or desirable, (b) rule on motions and objections made during proceedings of the Court, and (c) preserve all records of the Court in connection with questions about violations of the Code.

§5.3 A member of the faculty, appointed by the Dean, shall serve as a nonvoting member

§5.4 The Chief Justice shall (a) preside over all meetings of the Court, (b) act as the chief administrative officer of the Court, and (c) only vote to break a tie.

§5.5 The Prosecutor is an officer of the Court who is the representative of the law students in investigating, presenting, and prosecuting alleged violations of the Code. The Prosecutor shall be a third year law student in good standing elected by the student body at large.

§5.6 The Assistant Prosecutor is an officer of the Court who assists the Prosecutor in investigating, presenting, and prosecuting violations of the Code. The Assistant Prosecutor shall be a second or third year law student in good standing elected by the student body at large.

§5.7 The Defense Counsel is an officer of the Court who is selected by a suspected violator to assist in his defense. A suspected violator may select as Defense Counsel either one attorney licensed to practice law in Alabama or a maximum of two second or third year law students. The alleged violator shall be entitled to proceed pro se.

Revised March 8, 2010

Article VI. Prehearing Procedures

§6.1 Reporting Suspected Violations

(a) Any student who in good faith reasonably suspects that a violation of the Code has occurred shall report that suspected violation at the earliest practicable time to the Prosecutor pursuant to the procedures set forth in Subsection 6.1(c).

(b) Any other member of the Law School or University community (administration, faculty, or staff) who in good faith reasonably suspects that a violation of the Code has occurred may report that suspected violation to the Prosecutor pursuant to the procedures set forth in Subsection 6.1(c).

(c) The Prosecutor shall provide a form for reporting violations and a separate sheet for the signature of the reporting party. The Report of the suspected violation shall contain the name of the suspected violator or, if the violator's name is not known, all relevant identifying information. It shall also include a full description of the suspected violation, stating the place, date, and approximate time of occurrence. The person reporting the violation shall verify the Report by signing on the separate signature page, and the Prosecutor shall reveal his identity as the reporting party only to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs except as provided herein at Subsection 6.4(a).

§6.2 Initial Investigation and Opportunity To Be Heard

(a) Upon receipt of the Report, the Prosecutor shall first provide a copy of the Report to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and then investigate whether there is probable cause to conclude that a violation of the Code has occurred. If the Prosecutor determines that there is not probable cause, he shall so advise the reporting party and take no further action on the Report.

(b) If the Prosecutor determines that there is probable cause, he shall provide a copy of the Report (without the signature page) to the suspected violator and afford the suspected violator an opportunity to be heard by him on the matter.

(1) If the suspected violator admits all allegations of the Report, then the procedures for a Sanction Hearing set forth in Section 6.3 shall be followed.

(2) If the suspected violator does not admit all allegations of the Report, the Prosecutor shall make such further inquiry or investigation as he deems appropriate, if any, in order to determine whether there is probable cause to conclude that a violation of the Code has occurred. If he determines that there is not probable cause, he shall so advise the suspected violator and the reporting party and take no further action on the Report. If he determines that there is probable cause, he shall so advise the suspected violator and the reporting party and follow the procedures for a Hearing on the Merits set forth in Section 6.4.

§6.3 Sanction Hearing

The Prosecutor shall present to the Court the Report, the fact that the violator has admitted the allegations of the Report, and any other relevant fact. The violator and his Defense Counsel have the right to appear before the Court and make such statements as they choose.

§6.4 Hearing on the Merits

(a) Promptly after notifying the suspected violator of the finding of probable cause, the Prosecutor shall file with the Court, and deliver to the suspected violator, (i) a written complaint containing a plain statement of the facts of the alleged violation(s), together with the identity of the reporting party, and (ii) the names of individuals needed as witnesses at the hearing on the complaint.

(b) Promptly after receiving the complaint, the Court shall schedule a hearing date which provides reasonable time for the parties and witnesses to prepare to attend. The Court shall then give prompt notice to the parties and witnesses of the time and place for the hearing on the complaint

(c) Prior to the hearing, the suspected violator may, but is not required to, file with the Court a written response to the complaint. Before any such response is filed with the Court, a copy thereof shall be delivered to the Prosecutor.

(d) At the hearing, the burden shall be on the Prosecutor to prove the allegations of violation(s) of the Code by clear and convincing evidence.

Article VII. Hearing Procedures

§7.1 Each Sanction Hearing as set forth in Section 6.3 and each Hearing on the Merits as set forth in Section 6.4 shall be closed to all persons except the Prosecutor, Assistant Prosecutor, Defense Counsel, the suspected violator, the interested faculty member(s), the witnesses, and any person designated by the Court to assist in the conduct of the hearing. Any party may invoke the rule to exclude a witness except during the taking of his testimony.

§7.2 In no hearing shall the Court be bound by formal rules of criminal or civil procedure or strict rules of evidence, nor does the Code attempt to establish detailed procedural rules. Each hearing shall be conducted in a manner that affords the parties a fair and reasonable opportunity to present information and make arguments relevant to the alleged violation(s) and appropriate sanction(s) when violation(s) are admitted or proved.

§7.3 (a) Any party has a right to challenge any member of the Court for cause. Any challenge for cause shall be made in writing and filed with the Court no later than one day prior to the hearing.

(b) The Chief Justice shall make the final decision on a challenge for cause filed prior to the hearing. If the Chief Justice is challenged or is otherwise unable to rule on the pre-hearing challenge, the challenge shall be decided prior to the hearing by a majority vote of the members of the Court present at the hearing. If Court member(s) are disqualified because of the granting of challenge(s) for cause, the remaining members of the Court shall constitute the Court for the remainder of the case if a quorum of the Court remains qualified and is present for the hearing. If the Chief Justice is disqualified because of the granting of a challenge for cause, the remaining members of the Court shall elect from among themselves a presiding judge for the case in question.

(c) If the granting of challenges results in the Court's inability to achieve a quorum for a case, each vacancy for that case shall be filled promptly by the Chief Justice, or if he is not able to act, by the SBA President. Each of the students selected to fill a vacancy for the case shall be in good academic standing and shall be in the student group which originally elected the member whose position has been rendered vacant for the case. The hearing may be continued for a reasonable time to permit the replacement judge(s) to become familiar with the case.

§7.4 The parties have the right to make opening and closing statements.

§7.5 The parties have the right to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

§7.6 The parties have the right to present any physical or demonstrative evidence, independent of witnesses, that is relevant to the case.

§7.7 The parties have the right to present character evidence and character witnesses.

§7.8 An electronic sound recording shall be made of the proceedings of the hearing.

§7.9 All exhibits offered, whether received into evidence or not, shall be retained and made a part of the record of the proceedings.

§7.10 Promptly after the hearing the Court shall deliberate to its decision. A finding of a violation of the Code requires an affirmative vote by four members of the Court that the violation has been proved by clear and convincing evidence.

§7.11 The Court shall prepare written findings of fact with respect to whether a violation has or has not occurred. Copies of such findings shall be presented to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and to each of the parties in the case.

§7.12 When a violation is admitted or found to have occurred, the Court shall provide in writing to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs a recommendation of the sanction(s) it determines to be appropriate, together with the reasons for the recommendation.

Article VIII. Sanctions

§8.1 The Court may recommend any one or more of the following sanctions to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs:

- (a) Expulsion.
- (b) Suspension for a specified period of time.
- (c) A reduction of the grade in the course in which the violation occurred, including reduction to an "F".
- (d) A grade of "Incomplete" in the course in which the violation occurred.
- (e) Cancellation of the work done in the course in which the violation occurred.
- (f) A written reprimand, which the administration of the Law School shall have the discretion to remove from the student's permanent record.
- (g) Payment to compensate for any injury or loss caused, provided that the amount of such injury or loss has been proved by a preponderance of the information, together with up to three times the amount of such compensatory payment.

(h) Restitution.

(i) Dismissal from Law Review, Moot Court, and any other office or position connected with the Law School.

(j) Any other appropriate sanction.

Article IX. Appeals

§9.1 Any interested party has the right to appeal to the Dean. Any matter may be appealed except for findings of fact. Notice of appeal must be filed with the Dean no later than three days after the party receives written notification of the sanction(s) to be imposed.

§9.2 There will be no additional testimony permitted at the appeal. The Dean shall decide the appeal based solely upon the written documents in the case, the records of the proceedings of the Court (including the electronic sound recording), and such oral arguments of the parties as the Dean deems appropriate.

§9.3 When the Dean has decided an appeal, he shall provide written notice to the parties of his decision. Following receipt of such notice (or, as the case may be, the expiration of the time for filing an appeal), the Chief Justice shall promptly publish a summary of any case in which a sanction is imposed, including findings of fact as to the violation(s) of the Code and the sanction(s) imposed, provided however that the name of the parties involved shall not be revealed.

Article X. Enactment of, and Amendments to, the Code

§10.1 The Code, and any amendment of it, shall originate either in the Court or the faculty. The originating body shall approve the Code or any amendment of it and then submit it for approval of the other body. Upon approval by the other body, it shall be submitted to the student body for final approval.

§10.2 The Code, and any amendment of it, shall become effective upon final approval and shall govern all conduct occurring after the date of its adoption.

§10.3 Upon final approval, the Code shall be printed and distributed to the students. The Code as amended shall be printed in each subsequent addition of the Student Handbook and provided to all students upon enrollment in the Law School. Copies of the Code shall be placed on reserve in the law library and made available in the office of the Student Bar Association.

§10.4 If there is any conflict between the Code and the regulation of any student organization, the Code governs such regulation.

§10.5 Final approval of the Code repeals the honor code(s) in effect at the time of such approval.

Article XI. Pledge

§11.1 On any written work done by a law student for academic credit, including examinations, the pledge provided in Section 11.2 must be included, followed by the student's entry of his signature (or anonymous number when appropriate). However, even if the pledge is not included, all such work is governed by the Code.

§11.2 The pledge shall be as follows: "On my honor I represent that I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this (fill in the appropriate description)."

§11.3 If the completed pledge does not appear on the academic work, the instructor may exercise his discretion and not give credit for the work.

§11.4 The purpose of the pledge is to provide a continuing reminder to each student that he owes a responsibility of honorable behavior to himself, to his fellow students, to his instructors, to the Law School, and to the legal profession.

Approved by the faculty on January 23, 2004, and by the student body on March 16, 2004.

PART 2 – NONDISCRIMINATION AND DIVERSITY

§ 6-201. Nondiscrimination.

Faulkner University's Thomas Goode Jones School of Law does not discriminate on any basis protected by federal or state law in connection with its educational policies, admissions, financial aid, employment, educational programs, or activities. The School of Law does not discriminate against any person on the basis of sexual orientation. However, sexual conduct outside marriage is inconsistent with the University's religious traditions, values, affiliation, and purpose. Therefore, in accordance with ABA Standard 211, the School of Law does not knowingly employ individuals who engage in such conduct; the School of Law also expects its students to avoid using the law school's (or University's) facilities, resources, or names to advocate such conduct. Also, in accordance with Standard 211, the School of Law exercises a preference in employment of faculty and staff for those qualified applicants who are members of the Church of Christ whose lifestyles are consistent with the mission of the School of Law and with the beliefs and values of the Church of Christ. In cases where no qualified applicant is a member of the Church of Christ, the School of Law exercises a preference in employment for those whose religious beliefs and lifestyles are consistent with the mission of the School of Law and with the beliefs and values of the Church of Christ.

§ 6-202. Diversity.

It is the policy of the law school to employ, retain, or admit faculty members, staff, and students on the basis of individual merit. However, the law school believes that diversity in the faculty, staff, and students is directly related to the value of its educational mission. The benefits to be derived, especially in the context of the study of law, mandate that special care be taken to achieve a high level of diversity among faculty members, staff, and students. Aspiring lawyers who have been exposed to diverse views will bring to the bar an enhanced appreciation of their unique role in society and their special responsibilities in the administration of justice for all people. The law school's commitment to diversity, however, is informed by its mission statement and its affiliation with Faulkner University.

PART 3 – ACADEMIC FREEDOM

§ 6-301. Principles.

The well being of an academic institution and of society in general can be maintained only if individuals and groups exercise their responsibility and freedom to search for the truth and to speak the truth as it is discovered. As members of a collegial community, members of the faculty, administrators, and students of the law school must extend to one another the trust and respect which create the appropriate environment for the exercise of academic freedom. The faculty hereby adopts the “1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure” of the American Association of University Professors. It reads as follows:

“The teacher is entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results, subject to the adequate performance of his other academic duties, but research for pecuniary return should be based upon an understanding with the authorities of the institution.

“The teacher is entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing his subject, but he should be careful not to introduce into his teaching controversial matter which has no relation to his subject. Limitations of academic freedom because of religious or other aims of the institution should be clearly stated in writing at the time of the appointment.

“The teacher is a citizen, a member of a learned profession, and an officer of an educational institution. When he speaks or writes as a citizen, he should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but his special position in the community imposes special obligations. As a man of learning and an educational officer, he should remember that the public may judge his profession and his institution by his utterances. Hence, he should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others, and should make every effort to indicate that he is not an institutional spokesman.”

§ 6-302. Speech regarding Gender or Sexuality.

The free and open discussion of issues or theories relating to sexuality or gender in an academic or professional setting, when appropriate to the subject matter, will be presumed not to constitute sexual harassment even if it offends or embarrasses an individual.

PART 4 – STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

§ 6-401. Minimum Grade Point Average for Officers.

(a) Subject to subsection (b) and (c) hereof, no student whose cumulative grade point average is less than 2.30 may hold an office in an organization approved by the law school. A student who does not meet this requirement forfeits his or her office immediately.

(b) A first-year SBA Senator or Honor Court Justice may complete his or her term of office should he or she finish the fall semester with a grade point average less than a 2.30.

(c) This section does not impair the right of a particular organization to require a higher grade point average as a prerequisite for holding office.

§ 6-402. Former Students Not Eligible.

Former students are not eligible for membership in an organization approved by the law school for students.

PART 5 - POLICIES

§ 6-501. Policy on the Use of Alcohol

Law students should be aware that their actions reflect on their professional reputation. One's professional reputation does not begin upon graduation from law school but from the outset of his or her law school career. The law school encourages students to think and act responsibly if engaging in the use of alcohol.

The law school prohibits students and student organizations from providing or arranging for the provision of alcoholic beverages at events or functions sponsored by any student organization. An event or function invoking the name of the law school or the name of any student organization defines sponsorship. Arranging for the provision of alcoholic beverages includes any "deals" made with licensed vendors to provide a special discount to event attendees.

Concerns regarding students' abuse of alcohol or other controlled substances should be reported to the Assistant Dean for Student Services. Counseling is available to law students through the Alabama Lawyer Assistance Program sponsored by the Alabama State Bar. The program director is Jeanne Marie Leslie. Her contact number is 334-834-7576 (24-hour Confidential Phone, 334-224-6920) and her e-mail address is jeannemarie.leslie@alabar.org.

§ 6-502. Professional Courtesy and Behavior Policy

In accordance with the mission statement emphasizing a strong commitment to integrity within a caring Christian environment, the law school expects its students to conduct themselves in a professional, dignified, and respectful manner and avoid inappropriate conduct. Students are also expected to respect the views and personal dignity of other members of the law school and university community.

A non-exhaustive list of inappropriate conduct includes:

1. Severe or pervasive use of obscenities or the use of profane, degrading, abusive, or threatening language or gestures.
2. Disrupting the activities or functions of the law school or university, or any class, library, academic, or co-curricular activity.
3. Making a material misrepresentation to the administration, faculty, or staff of the law school or university. Misrepresentations prohibited by section 3.1(k) of the Honor Code shall be addressed pursuant to the Honor Code, rather than under this Policy.
4. Publishing or circulating false information that is damaging to the reputation of any member of the law school or university community.

5. Failing or refusing to comply with the reasonable instruction of any clearly identified law school or university official who is performing his or her duties.
6. Destroying, defacing, erasing, altering, hiding, limiting access to, possessing, accessing, entering or using, without authority, the property of the law school and university or the property of others located on the premises of the law school and university or related to a law school and university activity. Practices prohibited by section 3.1(d) of the Honor Code shall be addressed pursuant to the Honor Code, rather than under this Policy.
7. Taking property of another without authorization or by fraud. Such property includes, but is not limited to, briefs, books, notes, tapes, computer software, data, or outlines belonging to a faculty member or another student.
8. Engaging in conduct, which, if done by a lawyer, would violate the Alabama Rules of Professional Conduct, including but not limited to the unauthorized practice of law, lack of candor to appropriate authorities, and untruthfulness.
9. Engaging in conduct that adversely reflects on fitness to study or practice law, including but not limited to violations of federal or state criminal law, regardless of whether such conduct is actually prosecuted in the courts.
10. Directly or indirectly discouraging, harassing, retaliating against, or attempting to influence improperly any administrator, faculty member, witness, person reporting a violation, or other person involved with the Administrative Discipline process or Honor Code process, or refusing to cooperate in any investigation or proceeding pursuant to such processes.
11. Behavior that adversely reflects on or affects the law school and university community, mission, or reputation.

The law school encourages students to apprise themselves of the Alabama State Bar's Code of Professional Courtesy which illustrates how lawyers should conduct themselves in the practice of law. Students should begin practicing these concepts while in law school.

§ 6-503. Administrative Discipline Policy

The Dean, or the Dean's designee, has full authority to enforce law school policies. If an alleged policy violation is reported, a student or student organization is entitled to a hearing with the Dean or the Dean's designee as soon as practicable. However, appropriate protective measures may be taken prior to a hearing. Sanctions for policy violations may include:

1. Expulsion
2. Suspension for a specified period of time.
3. Disciplinary probation.

4. A written reprimand, which the administration of the law school shall have the discretion to remove from the student's permanent record.
5. Community service.
6. Payment to compensate for any injury or loss caused, provided that the amount of such injury or loss has been proved by a preponderance of the information, together with up to three times the amount of such compensatory payment.
7. Restitution.
8. Dismissal from Law Review, Moot Court, and any other office or position connected with the law school.
9. Any other appropriate sanction.

This list of sanctions is not all-inclusive, and sanctions are not listed in any particular order. One or more sanctions may be imposed in response to one or more policy violations at the discretion of the Administration at any time. The sanction selected depends on the nature and severity of the violation. Prior violations or mitigating factors may be considered when imposing sanctions under this policy.

Violations of policies in the "policy statements" section of the Student Handbook will be regarded as "non-academic" violations and addressed by the Administrative Discipline Policy. If an academic violation should be suspected during investigation of a non-academic violation, then the academic violation shall be addressed by the Honor Code and its procedures. The non-academic violation shall be addressed by the Administrative Discipline Policy and its procedures. In the event of any overlap between the Honor Code and the Administrative Discipline Policy, the matter will be treated as non-academic and addressed under the Administrative Discipline Policy and its procedures. In no event shall a single infraction subject a student to both the Administrative Discipline Policy procedures and the Honor Code procedures.

CHAPTER SEVEN ~ FACULTY

The 2008 Revisions to Chapter 7-Faculty shall be applicable to all tenure track faculty members hired after these revised rules were adopted on April 18, 2008, by the faculty of the School of Law. These revised rules shall also be made applicable to any current faculty member who chooses to be so bound. That choice shall be indicated by a signed acceptance of these rules and a waiver of applicability of all previous Chapter 7 rules.

PART 1 – INITIAL APPOINTMENTS

§ 7-101. Authority to Appoint Faculty.

Authority to appoint members of the faculty is vested in the President of the University. This authority is normally exercised in the law school through the dean after recommendation by the faculty.

*September 21, 2004
Rev. April 18, 2008*

§ 7-102. Hiring Preference.

(a) The mission statements of Faulkner University and the law school speak to the religious and ethical philosophy of the goals of the University and the law school. It is the purpose of this section to state a hiring preference in the law school.

(b) As to each potential faculty appointment, the tenured and tenure-track faculty should first determine the requirements for the position in general terms as to attainments beyond the minimum of a J.D. degree from a nationally-accredited school of law (i.e., national reputation and prominence of law school, rank in class, law review, judicial clerkships, quality of law firm, teaching experience, professional research and publications record, post-J.D. law degrees, specific specialized fields of competence in law practice, and similar criteria). Then, it should be the responsibility of all parties involved (the faculty's Appointments Committee, the dean, and the tenured and tenure-track faculty members who interview candidates) to demonstrate that all reasonable avenues have been explored to find such a candidate who is a faithful member of the Church of Christ. If such efforts fail, then the search should be broadened to include other believers in Christ who likewise understand and agree with the Christian aspects of the mission statements of the University and law school, and who evidence an intent and desire to preserve and expand upon the Christian commitments of the University and the law school.
